

Global sickle cell disease research in India: Opportunities and challenges

Lakshmanan Krishnamurti, MD

Director Bone Marrow Transplantation Program,
Division of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology/BMT,
Children's Healthcare of Atlanta;
Attending Physician, Pediatric Hematology/Oncology
BMT, Children's Healthcare of Atlanta;
Professor of Pediatrics, Emory University School of Medicine

Dr. Krishnamurti's main areas of interest are clinical research in hemoglobinopathies, hematopoietic stem cell transplantation, and systems approach to the delivery of care including newborn screening, international outreach, community outreach and the use of informatics to enhance care.

Emory Global Diabetes
Research Center

Friday, December 8
Noon - 1:00 pm

Room 600 I
Claudia Nance Rollins Building
Rollins School of Public Health

Pizza will be served